

joinery specifications

Magnet Trade joinery products are manufactured to the highest standards in our state-of-the-art UK factory, using the unrivalled expertise of our team of craftsmen. Look out for the symbols featured here and you'll see at a glance how each product measures up to the latest Building Regulations, and your customers' requirements in terms of sustainability, energy efficiency, security, safety and sheer quality.

JOINERY SPECIFICATIONS

Indicates doors that have the best thermal efficiency and are suitable for most Part L projects. Doors with this icon have a u value of 2.2 w/m²k or less.

Indicates doors that are thermally efficient and are suitable for refurbishment projects as the glazed area of the door is less than 50% of the total door and frame area. Doors with this icon have a u value of 3.0 w/m²k or less.

Indicates doors to enable access for disabled people in dwellings, wider doors and reduced height thresholds are required by Part M of the Building Regulations.

Indicates product is available as a pre hung door set for easy installation. Fitted with a multi point locking system.

Indicates product is manufactured from engineered over veneered components for greater stability.

Products marked with the FSC logo are being sourced from responsibly managed forests with FSC accreditation.

www.securedbydesign.com

If you require the latest security specification, we also offer ranges approved under the Secured By Design scheme – endorsed and supported by the Association of Chief Police Officers (ACPO) – which meet the requirements of BS:7950. These windows feature shoot bolt espagnolette locking and optional toughened and laminated glass.

Many of our windows and french doors are available as made to measure options. Please check with your Trade Professional for further details.

Magnet Trade doors are tested to BS:476 Part 22: 1987 achieving fire resistance up to 30 minutes when hung and installed in accordance with instructions provided with the door.